Let's see yours!!

Treasure hunt time

You need to find something to become a Sceptre

- This will be long and thin like a roll of wrapping paper or tube

You need to find something to become an Orb

- This will be a ball like object

You need something to become a Crown

- A silly hat will do here

You need to find a willing 'victim'

- Mum or Dad or someone else at home will do - if you can't find anyone use a teddy

Your willing 'victim' is going to become the Archbishop in our play.

The Rainbow is going to become the Queen :D

Archbishop: Are you willing to take the Oath?

Queen: I am willing

At this, the Archbishop should place the crown on the Queen's head and pass her the Sceptre and the Orb.

Archbishop: I present to you Queen [name]. Long live the Queen

Anyone else in the room: Long Live the Queen, Long Live the Queen

How do you think life changed for the queen after her coronation?
