Pedal Power

We're off to the Zoo to practice our balances...
Balancing helps us to learn to ride a bike.

Giraffe - Stand on your tippy toes

Flamingo - Stand on one leg

Monkey - sit with only your bottom touching the floor

Pedal Power

We're off to the Zoo to practice our balances...
Balancing helps us to learn to ride a bike.

There once was a Rainbow unit that visited the Zoo. They were excited to see the animals. Cloudy's favourite animal was the giraffe because he had a really long neck. Ladybird loved the pink flamingos. They look funny standing on one leg. Sunshine loved the monkey. He was very cheeky! Just like lots of your smiles 😊. They wondered if the giraffe, flamingos or monkey would like to join their unit. So, they wrote a really long letter to the giraffe, a letter on pink paper for the flamingos and wrote a funny joke for the monkey in the hope they'd like to be Rainbows too.

Pedal Power

Stand still with both feet together. Lift your foot and bring it forward in a big circle as if you're pedalling. Stamp your foot on the floor and slide it backwards. Repeat with the other foot too, which one is easier?
